THE MAN OF STONE.
I'm the Man of Stone, the Star of All the Russias. What to do is Human suffering, human woe, or Human hatred? What avail the Vastly eyes and vain chimera
Of the frantic fools who prate of Liberty and manumission?
I, the man of granite nature,
Firm-set purpose, heart of agate.
Am, and always will be, despot
Over all in my vast Empire.
Who's to say me "no" or "wherefore?"
Who's to damn and who's to pardon?
Men are mine; their blood is mine, too—Mine to shed or keep within its Vital veins if it may be of Use to me or my ambitions.
Who in all the Russias dares to Praise or worship God except as I decree he shall be worshipped?
Thus, with tattered robe, myself I Make a God of mighty power; Proudful and fulminant, my Hell at hand—not vacuous and Far away—located where my Slaves may see it, and inhale its Joy breath that tortures more than Battering beat. Siberia!
Terrestrial hell of lurid horror, Dread thy name to Russian ears! Nor God, nor friend, nor monster mortal Could improve on this inferno!
How my subjects fear and loathe it!
How they cringe, obedient dogs! Didst Hear of how they plagued the Jew—the Searded Jew of Kishineff, who Had his own beloved God? Well, Now his God has HIM! Yo-ho, a Merry jest, a jocular jest! Didst Hear of how I took cold Finland, Breaking thus my father's promise?
Now Manchuria my dream is!
Land of heathen unbelievers,
Soon I'll bring to you a potent, Mighty and imperious God whom You shall worship with devout and Trembling voices!
Quail, O, Freedom, even now I Briskly blow with blustering breath at Liberty's unguarded light, and Soon 'twill flicker out and perish!
Down with Independence! Hither
Bring the rusty iron shackles
That the ancient despots used!
Hither Finn, and hither China!
Come, thou beastly Jewish peasant!
Tremble! Tremble! Fear me! Fear me!
Pay my taxes, or die starving!
"FEAR ME! FEAR ME!"
That's my motto!
Each of you full well shall know it When you know the Man of Stone!
—Howard Sazby, Jr.

GEORGE WOOD.

The venerable George Wood, one of Mason county's oldest and most honored citizens, passed away at 8 o'clock yesterday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. W. Forman, near Washington.

Mr. Wood's long life had been spent in this community, and no man was better known or more highly respected than he.

Deceased was in the eighty-eighth year of his age, being born March 23d, 1817, at "Belle Forest," the handsome old Wood homestead in this county.

Of a large family, his death removes all but one member—that one surviving being Mrs.
Ann Metcalfe of Azusa, California.

Mr. Wood's devoted wife passed away just two years ago, but surviving him are nine children—Henry L. of California, Thomas of Cincinnati, Charles of Augusta, Schultz of Covington, Andrew, Mrs. C. W. Forman and Miss Nannie Wood of Washington, George Wood and Mrs. Robert B. Owens of this city.

The funeral is to take place at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning from the home of Mrs. Forman, the services to be conducted by the Rev.
W. T. Spears.

In keeping with the quiet life of this splendid citizen the obsequies are to be very simple, and no flowers are to be received.

The remains will be laid to rest in Maysville Cemetery.

EARLY WORK

Action of Election Commissioners in Fleming County

The Democratic members of the Election Commission in Fleming county have done what they could to cheat Judge Bennett out of his election to Congress from the Ninth District.

Following their action as to the vote in the Grange City Precinct, as already has been noted, mandamus proceedings were commenced to compel them to count the votes as cast.

The Commissioners did not complete their work on Friday and were to meet at 10 o'clock this morning to finish up.

Notwithstanding many things were left undone, the Democratic members, Mr. M. H.
Kendall and Sheriff Collins, signed the report and sent it off Friday night.

At 12:15 this morning Mr. A. J. McCartney, the Republican member of the Commission, was aroused from his slumbers by the Democratic members, and informed that the Board was to meet immediately to resume the work and complete it.

Mr. McCartney refused to accompany them, but that made no difference, for, under the forms of the election law, Mr. Kendall and Mr.
Collins held a meeting, and before 1 o'clock this morning, finished the report and adjourned sine die.

The vote of the Grange City Precinct was thrown out, and Goebellism in its vilest form has been practiced in Fleming county.

The mandamus proceedings which were instituted had not been served, and it is thought that the Democratic members, to thwart the law, met at midnight in order that the work could be completed before any further steps could be taken by the Republicans.

FOUND NEARLY FROZEN

Young Girl Enticed to Lonely Spot and Made Drunk

Saturday morning at 1 o'clock Constable Rosser was aroused from his slumber by the violent ringing of the door-bell at his residence in Walnut street.

On answering the call he was confronted by Tobe Singleton, colored, who informed the Major that the residents of his neighborhood could not sleep on account of the crying and wailing of some one who was evidently in distress.

The big-hearted Constable robed himself as quickly as possible, and lantern in hand and Tobe as guide they started on a mission of mercy.

After scouring the neighborhood, even going out the pike beyond Gollenstein's blacksmith shop, they were about to abandon the hunt when the thought of Tobe's bloodhounds entered their minds.

After securing the dogs, they trailed along to Gollenstein's shop. Here they leaped the fence crossed the L. and N. track at Watkins's cut, where bushes and undergrowth cover the ground,
and began baying.

When the two men reached the spot they found a thirteen-year-old girl lying on the frozen ground partly disrobed, numbed and nearly chilled to death.

The child was moaning and calling for her mother, and was stupefied from the effects of liquor that had been given her.

Her dress and cape were found some distance from where she was lying.

On being interrogated, she informed the Major that she and another girl companion, a year older than herself, had been enticed there by a worthless character—the Major has a warrant for his arrest—and made drunk.

The girls live in the West End, and the youngest one can thank Tobe Singleton that she is alive today.

If he had not taken it upon himself to secure the assistance of Constable Rosser and go to her relief she would have surely died from exposure, the night being exceedingly cold.

It is a deplorable state of affairs when girls of such tender years are found in the condition as this poor child was.

Her girl companion and man had left her to her fate, to die as a beast, as surely she would have not the rescuers found her when they did —at 3 o'clock in the morning.

WILL THEY COUNT THEM?

Guess Judge Harbeson Will Tell Them to in January

In the Grange City, Fleming county, election muddle, noted in Saturday's LEDGER, a manda-mus suit was filed and served on the Election Commissioners to compel them to include the Grange City Precinct in the count, and the matter will come up in the Fleming Circuit Court next January.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube.
When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is heavily closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.
